11. SUSPENSION :

The Vice Chancellor shall act as the Disciplinary authority in respect of all employees and members of the teaching faculty other than those belonging to the Non-teaching category. In respect of the Officer category, the Executive Council will act as the Disciplinary Authority. In respect of the non teaching category including the lower subordinate staff, the Registrar shall act as the disciplinary authority subject to the delegation of such power by the Vice-Chancellor and/or with the approval of the Competent authority.

However, the Registrar, so empowered to act as Disciplinary Authority shall not be entitled to impose any penalty other than "Censure" and in such a case, the same will be placed before the Vice Chancellor and the Executive council before issue of the final order. In the event , the disciplinary authority is of the opinion that the gravity of the offence on the basis of the inquiry report warrants imposition of any other punishment than "Censure", the same may be placed before the Executive Council for passing the final order as the Executive Council may deem fit and proper.

An employee or a member of the teaching faculty of the University shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the disciplinary authority :

- (i) Where disciplinary proceeding is contemplated against him/her for misconduct as defined in the Statutes/Ordinances/ Regulations:
- (ii) Where a case against him/her in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation,
- (iii) Where preliminary domestic inquiry indicates commissioning of misconduct that warrants initiation of disciplinary proceedings ;

- (iv) An employee who is determined in police custody, whether in a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding 48 (forty eight) hours, shall be deemed to be under suspension with effect from the date of his/her detention by an order of the disciplinary authority and shall remain under suspension until further orders.
An order of suspension under these Regulations shall not be deemed to be or construed as punishment for any purpose whatsoever unless the employee's guilt is proved by a duly appointed Inquiring Authority and imposition of penalties by the disciplinary authority.
- (v) Where a penalty of dismissal or removal from service imposed upon an employee under suspension is set aside on appeal or on review and the case is remitted for further inquiry or with any other directions, the order of his/her suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of the original order of dismissal or removal and shall remain in force till final disposal of the matter.
- (vi) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under these Regulations may at any time be revoked by the authority which made it or deemed to have made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.

12. PAY AND ALLOWANCES DURING SUSPENSION :

- (i) An employee under suspension shall be entitled to draw subsistence allowance equal to fifty percent of his/her basic pay , D.A., ADA, Grade Pay and other compensatory allowance that he/she was in receipt on the date of suspension provided the disciplinary authority is satisfied that the employee is not engaged in any other employment or business or profession or vocation. The concerned employee shall also submit a statement to that effect in the format prescribed in this behalf every time while drawing the said allowance.
- (ii) Where the period of suspension exceeds six months, the amount of subsistence allowance may be increased to seventy five percent of the basic pay , grade pay and allowances thereon that he/she was in receipt of on the date of such suspension, if in the opinion of the disciplinary authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing, not directly attributable to the employee under suspension.
- (iii) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under these Regulations may be reviewed by the authority which is competent to modify or revoke the suspension before expiry of ninety days from the effective date of suspension on the recommendation of the Review Committee constituted for the purpose and may pass orders accordingly.

13. TREATMENT OF PERIOD OF SUSPENSION :

- (I) When the employee under suspension, on the findings of the inquiry report or under consideration by the disciplinary authority is reinstated, he may be in receipt of the following pay and allowances for the period of suspension:
- (II) If the employee is honourably exonerated from the charges and not awarded any penalty, he/she will be in receipt of the full pay and allowances which he/she would have been entitled to had he/she not been suspended, less the subsistence allowance already paid to him. In such a case, the period of suspension will be treated as period spent on duty.
- (III) If otherwise, i.e if he is not honourably reinstated and advised to join duties after imposition of penalty, such proportion of pay and allowances as the Executive Council decides. In such a case, it will also be treated as period spent on duty so that no break of service occurs but such consideration will not entitle him/her for the purpose of receiving any difference of pay and allowances for the suspension period. However, the Executive Council may direct to treat the suspension period as period spent on duty for the purpose of receipt of the difference of pay for the period of suspension on the basis of an appeal preferred by the concerned employee after examining the facts and circumstances and merit of such suspension.

14. PENALTIES :

Any of the following penalties and penalties as prescribed in the first Statutes and First Ordinances may be imposed on any employee and member of the teaching faculty of the university for misconduct after complying with the procedures contained herein after.

15. PROCEDURE FOR IMPOSING Major PENALTY :

No order for imposing any of the major penalties specified in these Regulations shall be made except after an inquiry held in accordance with the procedures prescribed in these Regulations.

- (a) Whenever the disciplinary authority is of the opinion that there are grounds for inquiring into the truth of any imputation of misconduct or misbehavior against an employee, it may itself enquire or appoint an Inquiring Authority to enquire into the truth thereof duly vetted by the Executive Council.
- (b) When it is proposed to hold an enquiry, the disciplinary authority shall frame definite charges on the basis of the allegations against the employee, duly vetted by the Executive Council or the competent authority. The charges , together with a statement of imputations of misconduct or misbehavior in support of each article of charge, shall also contain a list of documents (authenticated copies to be enclosed with the charge sheet served)by which and a list of witnesses(giving the names, designation and duly authenticated) by which the article of charges are proposed to be sustained shall be communicated in writing to the employee and shall require the employee to submit to the disciplinary authority within - such time(not exceeding fifteen days) a written statement whether he admits or denies any or all of the article of charges.

- (c) On receipt of the written statement of the employee, or if no such statement is received within the time specified, an inquiry may be held by the disciplinary authority itself or by appointing an Inquiring Authority to enquire into the alleged charges of misconduct/ charges as are not admitted issued in the form of charge sheet.
 - (d) However, it may not be necessary to hold an inquiry in respect of the charges admitted by the concerned employee in his/her written statement.
 - (e) The disciplinary authority shall also appoint a Presenting Officer from its employees(preferably of officer rank) to present the case on behalf of the disciplinary authority , before the Inquiring Authority.
 - (f) The concerned employee, shall present himself/herself before the Inquiring Authority on such date(s) as the Inquiring Authority would fix for holding the inquiry proceedings.
 - (g) The concerned employee shall be given an opportunity to inspect the original documents adduced with the charge sheet if he/she so desires subject to prior intimation and time allotted by the appropriate authority of the University.
 - (h) The employee concerned is entitled to submit a list of witnesses on his behalf and be allowed to submit a list of additional documents that he/she wants to examine. However, relevancy of the additional documents and the witnesses will have to given by the employee concerned and the documents and witnesses shall be summoned if the inquiring authority is satisfied about their relevance to the charge under inquiry.
 - (i) He/she will also be given full opportunity to cross examine the witnesses, if any in support of the charges as well as such witnesses in support of his/her defense as may be considered relevant in the context of the charge and may request production of the documents and witnesses on a specified date and time provided that the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents may claim privilege if the production of such documents will be against the public interest.
 - (j) The employee may be allowed to take assistance of his co-employee but not be allowed to engage a legal practitioner for the purpose. However, in the event the Inquiring Authority so appointed is a legally trained person, the employee concerned may be allowed to get the support of a legal practitioner to defend his/her case.

- (k) On the date fixed for the inquiry, the oral and documentary evidence by which the article of charges are proposed to be sustained shall be produced by or on behalf of the disciplinary authority. The witnesses given in the list shall be examined by or on behalf of the Presenting Officer and may be cross examined both by the Presenting Officer and the charged employee. The Inquiring Authority may also put such questions to the witnesses as it thinks fit.
- (l) When the case for the disciplinary authority is closed the employee concerned may examine himself/herself in his/her own behalf if he/she so prefers. The witnesses produced by the employee, if any, shall then be examined and shall be liable to cross examination, re-examination and examination according to the provision applicable to the witnesses for the disciplinary authority.
- (m) The Inquiring Authority may, after the employee closes his/her case generally question him/her on the circumstances appearing against him/her in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the employee to explain any circumstances appearing against him/her.
- (n) After the completion of the evidence, the employee and the Presenting officer may file written briefs of their respective cases within fifteen days of the date of completion of production of evidence.
- (o) If the employee concerned does not submit the written statement of defense on or before the date specified for the purpose or does not appear in Person or through the assisting officer or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with any of the provision of these Regulations, the Inquiring Authority may hold the inquiry ex parte after providing every adequate opportunities to him/her and all such efforts are exhausted.
- (p) After the conclusion of the inquiry proceedings, report shall be prepared by the Inquiring Authority and it shall contain:
 - (i) A gist of the article of charge and the statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehavior.
 - (ii) A gist of the defense of the employee concerned in respect of each article of charge.
 - (iii) Assessment of the evidence in respect of each article of charge.
 - (iv) The findings on each article of charge and the reason there for.
